School Newsletter

Dear Parents and Carers,

Caring and child well-being is at the heart of the school Parent Voice 2024

We are proud to announce that we are recognised as a My Happy Mind school and have displayed our banner prominently outside school.

Excellent school that provides support to both children and families Parent Voice 2024

We are also delighted to inform our school community that Compass Bloom is now in our school and we look forward to this partnership in supporting our children and their families with mental health and well being. We have attached a leaflet with more information.

Attendance

Reception	98%
Year 1	95%
Year 2	91%

A huge thank you to all of our children who took the time to create a manifesto and present to their class for our pupil leadership teams. Congratulations to our children who were voted by their peers to represent our pupil's voice in key areas in school. We look forward to seeing you continue to improve our offer here at St. Paul's.

As always, if any of our families require any support or guidance, please do not hesitate to get in touch via phone 01257 480276 or email bursar@adlingtonstpauls.lancs.sch.uk

Thank you as always, for your continued support and understanding.

Kind regards,

Mrs J Burger

We have places available across school from reception to Year 6 as well as places for our Reception 2025 intake.

As a school, we are posting on our social media pages, Facebook (Adlington St Paul's CE Primary School) and X (@StAdlington) to advertise and we would be very grateful if parents and carers could like or share these posts and inform our local community that we have places available and warmly welcome everyone to come and visit our wonderful school.

We will also be holding an Open Evening on Tuesday 12th November from 5-7 pm.
