School Newsletter

Dear Parents and Carers,

A huge thanks to our children and staff for giving up their time during our open evening. The children were incredible and spoke confidently to our families that visited about our school and what it has to offer.

Thank you to everyone who donated on Friday to support Children in Need, we raised a total of £133.86p

It was also a fun morning with a visit from author Sean Perkins, he inspired the children with his story telling and guitar playing linked to his new book, 'Oscar and Ben's Sleepover.' A letter was sent home with children in case any one is interested in purchasing a signed copy of his book(s).

A reminder that we are a nut free and strawberry free school. This means that no food or drink products containing nuts or strawberries can be brought into school for the safety and well-being of our children. Please check ingredient labels if you are unsure. We appreciate your support in this matter.

Children's water bottles, should only contain water as this is a healthy drink option for during the school day. If your child is bringing a drink to have with their lunch, this must not contain strawberries. Again, please check labels.

It is forecast to get cold this week, please ensure your children are wrapped up warm with a suitable warm coat and hat, gloves and scarves. As always, if you need any support, please just contact the school office.

Don't forget you can visit X @StAdlington or our Facebook page to see photographs of what has been going on in school.

Thank you as always, for your continued support and understanding. Please remember, we are always here if you have any questions or need any support.

Kind regards,

Mrs J Burger

Message from our Literacy Ambassadors and Mrs Chidgey

Our Scholastic Book Fair is back. Please support us in visiting our book fair and purchasing books; they make great Christmas gifts!

Every book you purchase enables our school the chance to get new 'free' books for our school to enhance the books we have on offer to read.

Please come along to the school hall after school on Thursday 27th November—Tuesday 3rd December. The Book Fair will also be available during the Christmas Fair on Friday 29th November.

Children can also bring money into school and will be given the opportunity to purchase a book during the school day too.

Any questions, please contact the school office or your child's class teacher.
